

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

July 18, 1888.

To The Superintendent—

I think it will be necessary for the Coiner to make and deliver at least $100.000 in Gold coin at the earliest practicable moment. Not sufficient coin available for paying depositors remains in stock.

Lobb
ack

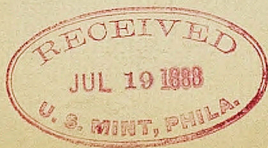

Phila.

July 18. 1888.

Mr. H. Cobb.

Cashier

Thinks it necessary for Coin to make & deliver
$100.000 in Gold Coin.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 153

[Abstract:] Thinks it necessary for Coiner to make & deliver $100,000 in Gold Coin.

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,
Superintendent's Office,
July 18, 1888

To the Superintendent –

I think it will be necessary for the Coiner to make and deliver at least $100,000 in Gold Coin at the earliest practicable moment. Not sufficient coin available for paying depositors remains in stock.

Cobb
Cash.